Payment Guidelines

In the case of surrendering a certificate due to a mistake done by EDOGIS, all fees specified are waived and the certificate is processed for free. In the case of voluntary surrender, only the processing fee is payable. In all other cases the fees payable are non-refundable.
 NB: EDOGIS will always use the name as it appears on the identification documents NOT the application form. If an applicant wants to go with the name on the form, a standard court affidavit needs to be submitted confirming the name spelling which is different than the Identification Document.

Short Application Guidelines

Title Holders who wants to surrender their old Secured Certificate of Occupancy to exchange it with a new Secured Certificate of Occupancy containing amendments to their terms and conditions of occupancy, must apply with this SCO form. Applications must be submitted together with the old C-of-O. Applicants who apply with this form due to Assignment, Change of Land use, or Change of Name must have already received approvals in a previous application.
